-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1-41 is/are pending in the application.

- 6) ☐ Other: ____.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1- 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 1, 16, and 34, interior "portions" do not have directions, but rather width/height/length.

In claims 34 and 40, "an ambient first air portion" and "an ambient second air portion" are misleading. Ambient air cannot by definition be divided into portions.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4, 16, 17, 20, 23, 29-35, 40, and 41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bernard et al(6,450,133). Bernard et al show a shipping container 12; a first interior portion 32 including a first air inlet at 64, generator 44, motor 38,; a second interior portion including a second air inlet 60, and radiator 72. In regard to claims 3 and 4, the air from inlet will pass the generator and enter the engine. There are first and second air outlets on either side of first and second fans 46,48. In regard to claim 33, figure 1 shows the tandem axels 26 and coupling 30. In regard to claims 2 and 32, the dimensions and power output of the generator are deemed matters of engineering choice dependent on the well-known factors of required output, vehicle size regulations, cost, and weight. The fuel used by the engine is not set forth, however, it is common knowledge that gas fueled engines are well known for having especially low emissions and in some cases cheaper to run than gasoline engines; therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use a gas fueled engine in Bernard et al.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-15, 18, 19, 21-28, and 36-39 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
